STUDIA ANTIQUA A Student Journal for the Study of the Ancient World

Studia Antiqua follows the Society of Biblical Literature Handbook of Style (Peabody, MA: Hendrickson, 1999). Authors are encouraged to consult that volume for answers to questions not addressed in this document.

Studia Antiqua accepts electronic manuscript submissions year round. All manuscripts should be sent to studia\_antiqua@byu.edu. Manuscripts received prior to the last Monday in January will be considered for the spring issue, and those received before the last Monday in September will be considered for the fall issue. If article is accepted, please be prepared to offer sources. The author's name should not appear on the manuscript, but on a separate cover sheet.

Manuscripts should be double-spaced, using 12 point font and 1¼ in. margins, including endnotes. Manuscripts should not exceed 7,000 words, or 26–28 pages. Scripture citations should appear in text, following sections 8.3.1–8.3.3 and 4.1.7 in the SBL Handbook of Style. All scriptural citations should either be of the author's own translation or from the NRSV. Hebrew and Greek fonts should be used. All other languages should be transliterated.

Authors should avoid the generic use of the terms “man,” “mankind,” “brotherhood,” etc.. Inclusive terms (“human being,” “humanity,” “humankind,” “people,” etc.) should instead be used to refer to individuals or groups.

Special care should be taken concerning the use of the hyphen, the en dash, and the em dash. Refer to section 3.1.1.5 in the SBL Handbook of Style.

Direct quotations of five lines or more will be printed as separate, indented paragraphs in 12 point font, without opening or closing quotation marks. They should appear this way in the manuscript. Refer to section 3.2.1.2 in the SBL Handbook of Style.

Special materials (illustrations, charts, tables, etc.) should appear on individual pages separated from the main text, but their placement within the text should be clearly indicated (e.g., "insert illustration 1 here").

Avoid overcapitalization (e.g., biblical, temple). Refer to Appendix A of the SBL Handbook of Style. As a supplement to the SBL Handbook of Style, refer to the Chicago Manual of Style: 16th Edition (Chicago, University of Chicago Press, 2003). For spelling, Studia Antiqua follows Merriam-Webster's Collegiate Dictionary: Eleventh Edition (Springfield, MA: Merriam-Webster, 2003). When a word occurs with more than one spelling the first spelling listed should be used.
